Remember SatNavs can be unreliable in rural areas, so it's often best to follow the advice of local residents. Visiting artists and workshops is undertaken at your own risk.

You'll certainly discover Carmarthenshire's stunning coastline and the spectacular views of the Gower Peninsula. You'll also discover the rich history and culture of the region, from the ancient ruins of castles and abbeys to the vibrant arts and crafts scene.

So, if you're looking for a truly unique and unforgettable experience, then a weekend in Carmarthenshire is the perfect choice. Book your SatNav, pack your bags, and get ready to explore the wonders of this beautiful region.

100. All studios are open on our first weekend, but times vary for the remaining events. Best to check open and closed days and times before travelling.

Artists and Makers' entries include details of creative strategies, media, techniques, contact details, open and closed times, facilitator symbols, addresses, directions, website and social media pages. More information and updates can also be seen on www.llanddeilostrat.co.uk

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 12th year of Llwndell Arts Trail. Open Studios, now Llwndell Arts Trail. 20 artists and crafts makers are opening their studios and homes to the public for 9 days from Saturday 25th July–Sunday 2nd August. Free entry.

This is a wonderful opportunity to explore an area that has become one of the highest concentrations of artists living and working in Wales.

During the week, you will see a variety of artworks being made on your doorstep in the Tywi Valley. You'll also discover how Artists and Makers work, have a chat, ask about workshops after the event or even have a go during your visit - see Studio Workshops available during the event.

For more information and daily updates, see www.llwndellarts-trail.co.uk and also each artists and makers' website, Instagram & Facebook pages.
